Life Unexpected

One Woman's Journey to Personal Success
By Monica Latham

A story about life, the turns that can come, coping, and succeeding. How to make the most of the paths that are presented when they are different from the paths you expected to take. How to make plans to succeed. Steps you can take.

- Take care of yourself
- Plan ahead
- Explore more than one option
- Plan with practicality but remember to believe in yourself
- Enjoy where you are
- Breathe

ABOUT THE AUTHOR
Monica Latham is a librarian in the Morgan library at Colorado State University. She never planned on being a librarian, but her life took her on many unexpected paths that lead her to librarianship and a life she never thought she’d be living...and loving.